Mayor Jacobs to Join Missouri National Guard Hall of Fame Board

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs has been appointed to the Missouri National Guard Hall of Fame Civilian Advisory Board, which is in Kirksville, Mo.

“I am deeply honored to join the Missouri National Guard Hall of Fame Civilian Advisory Board,” Mayor Jacobs said. “As the son of a Navy/Air Force dad and a native Missourian, I think it’s important to remember and honor those who have served America and the great state of Missouri with distinction.”

The Mayor is an alumnus of Truman State University, which also is located in Kirksville, Missouri.

“We are excited to welcome Mayor Jacobs to our Civilian Advisory Board,” said Chairman John J. Sastry, chairman of the Hall. “He was a standout student-athlete at Truman and comes from a military family. Although he is best known to most of the world as ‘Kane’ from World Wrestling Entertainment, we recognize Glenn for his patriotism and sincere desire to serve others.”

The Civilian Advisory Board will play a key role in community engagement for this new organization.

The Missouri National Guard Hall of Fame was established in 2020 by a group of Veteran volunteers to commemorate and recognize individuals who have served in the Missouri National Guard or its predecessor, the Missouri State Militia, and who have made a significant contribution to the National Guard achievements, tradition or history.

The Hall is not-for-profit and independent of any governmental assistance or influence. It will be temporarily housed at the Adair County Historical Society until a permanent home is established.

Volunteers who served honorably are sought to assist in the Hall’s mission. Non-Veterans desiring to honor those who served are also welcome. To volunteer, please send a message.
