Mayor Jacobs to Host Kids' Trivia Night at New Harvest Park

Knoxville, Tenn.—Kids and families are invited to celebrate July 4th early in a fun-filled trivia game hosted by Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs, Read City USA, and the Knox County Public Library. The game is set for 5:30 to 7 p.m. on Tuesday, June 29 at New Harvest Park (4775 New Harvest Lane). Participation is free and open to children up to 11-years-old.

Mayor Jacobs will host the evening's festivities in two rounds—the first round will be for children up to 7-years-old and the second will be for kids 8- to 11-years-old. The Library will be on-site with take-home crafts and a special holiday edition of our Story Trails outdoor reading experience. Registration is at this link.

Papa John's will sell $1 slices of pizza and Knox Dough also will have treats available for purchase. Plus, families can enjoy New Harvest Park's splash pads and playground!

“We’re excited to try this out for the first time,” said Mayor Jacobs. “The library has prepared a list of books to help kids prepare for the questions so they’ll have a better chance at taking home a prize. Exploring our history is an important part of becoming an engaged citizen we think this will be a fun way to do it.”

First place in each round will win a $50 Visa Gift Card and a bag of books. Second place winners will take home a bag of books. Third place winners will receive some awesome KCPL and Read City USA swag.
