Mayor Jacobs Speaks About American Rescue Plan, Unaccompanied Minors

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.—During his Weekly Update, which will post about 3 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs shares information about spending the $92.3 million Knox County received from the American Rescue Plan but reminds the public that the money isn't free.

"It's never good when the federal government literally prints money to pay the bills," the Mayor says.

He also provides some clarifying information on the movement of migrant children to and through Knox County in recent months.

On a lighter note, he reminds the public about the upcoming Second Saturday concert series.
