Gibbs Pedestrian Bridge Announced

WHEN: 10:30 a.m. on Monday, November 8

WHERE: Gibbs High School (7628 Tazewell Pike, Corryton)
High School Front Lawn along Tazewell Pike

BACKGROUND: Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs will be joined by Congressman Tim Burchett, Commission Chair Richie Beeler, and other elected officials to announce the county's application for a grant to build a pedestrian bridge in the Gibbs community.

When constructed, the bridge will be named for the late Army Staff Sgt. Ryan Knauss.

Gibbs High School's JROTC will present the colors and the school's choir will sing the National Anthem.

Members of the public are invited to attend this event, but to meet the requirements of the grant application, a drop-by meeting for public comment will take place at 5:30 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 18 in the high school auditorium.
