Mayor Jacobs Talks About New Jobs, Veterans and More

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— During his Weekly Update, which will post about 3 p.m. today, Knox County Mayor Glenn Jacobs talks about the great work done by area rescue crews, the groundbreaking for Furrow Automotive Group, and the Vietnam ceremony at the East Tennessee State Veterans Cemetery.

"Speaking of the Vietnam War, don't forget to visit the Wall that Heals when it comes to Knoxville in late April," Mayor Jacobs says. "The Wall that Heals features a three-quarter scale replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C. It will be at the Lynnhurst Cemetery April 21-24."

The Mayor also talks about a meeting in Nashville for the Tennessee Board of Regents SOAR Awards, recognizing outstanding students and faculty in our community and technical college systems and "some very productive meetings with leadership from the General Assembly about legislation impacting Knox County."

Additionally, he congratulates Judge Kyle Hixson from Knoxville for his appointment by who Governor Bill Lee to the Tennessee Court of Criminal Appeals, Eastern Division.
