Second Saturday Concert Series Continues this Weekend, July 13

KNOXVILLE, Tenn.— The Second Saturday Concert Series continues this weekend at the Cove at Concord Park – featuring Knoxville native, Matt Woods and The Natural Disasters.

The free concerts are held from 6 to 8 p.m. July through August on the second Saturday of each month. Attendees are encouraged to bring their own blankets, lawn chairs, and food. However, no alcohol is allowed.

According to his bio, Woods is a product of Appalachia, and listeners can hear his East Tennessee roots tangled in the lines of his songs. It is through this filter he distills the world, both external and internal, into his unique brand of songwriting. You can call it Americana, folk rock, even country music but no matter what it's called it is, at its core, honest and heartfelt. You can find out more about Woods at his official website.

The Cove, located at 11808 S. Northshore Drive, is the county's most visited park. It features a number of summertime amenities, including a beach, playground, sand volleyball court, walking trail and fishing areas. River Sports also rents canoes and kayaks.

If any concert has to be canceled because of the weather, the county will post a notification to the Parks and Rec Facebook page and the Parks and Rec Twitter page.
